THANKSGIVING

A Royal Feast Prepared at Our Store.

This being turkey time we are offering some royal birds to appreciative patrons in the way of Suits and Overcoats.

Whether it be turkey, oysters, 'possum and sweet 'taters we want to say that our Dressing is the best Dressing, just the thing for Thanksgiving day.

To sit down to a swell Thanksgiving dinner and then to see the dressing is not the proper thing, is like the man who does not dress himself for the occasion at

Our Store.

All you have to do is just to look at our line of New Men's Suits to be convinced that we are the only up-to-date house in town.

One of those long belt coats or a swell top coat will cause any one to forget the most elaborate spread on Thanksgiving or to look and say: Why didn't I buy my overcoat at

B. Weill's.

They carry the real things in overcoats.

A man may be just as thankful in his old suit or overcoat, but he doesn't look it.

Remember our stock is large and daily do we receive new things, and everything at prices that will make you thankful for such a house as ours to buy from.

See Our Suits

On this day we send you our best, so here's to you for a big dinner and a jolly reunion around the family board.

Some of Our Dressings to be Had at Our Royal Feast. You Are Invited to Partake.

One more glance in that same direction you see gloves galore. No man is dressed without a nice glove, and no man can appreciate a line of gloves until he has seen our. All kinds—working and dress.

With a left twitch of the eye you will see a most beautiful line of shirts that has been carefully selected for this occasion Patterns and styles the newest Manhattans.

One glance beyond that you will find our underwear. Derby ribbed and fleeced lined cotton, wool and wool fleeced, fancy wool and silks. Everything here to make you comfortable.

Young Men's ...Department

All young men are particular about their suits, and they should be. We have aside from everything else a Young Man's Department, where a young man can buy his clothes that are cut, tailored and fashioned right up to style, and thankful is every young man that comes here for his clothes. Young men are a little fussy and cranky about what they wear. It's all right, for a good appearance means lots for a young man. We make a specialty of young men's clothes.

Thanksgiving Neckwear

We have spread an elaborate assortment of Men's Neckwear. We wish we could think of a big, long word that would do—it's elegance. New weaves in silks fresh from the loom. The latest shapes and designs. 25c to $2.50

Boys' and Children's Department.

Mothers and fathers are a little particular about what their boys wear. That is why they come here for their boys' clothes. KILLED IN A FLASH

An Awful Disaster on the Big Four Yesterday.

Twenty-one Men Killed in a Rear End Collision—All Railroad Laborers.

MISTAKE IN ORDERS THE CAUSE

Peoria, Ill., Nov. 20—Twenty-one men were killed and at least fifteen injured in a rear end collision between a westbound freight train and a work train on the Big Four railroad between Mackinaw and Tremont, at 2:45 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

All the dead and most of the injured were members of the work train, the crews on both engines jumping in time to save their lives. The collision occurred in a deep cut at the beginning of a sharp curve, neither train being visible to the crew of the other until they were within fifty feet. The two trains struck with such force that the sound was heard for miles around. A second after the collision the boiler of the work train exploded with terrific force, throwing heavy iron bars and splinters of wood to a distance of two hundred feet.

Conductor John M. W. Judge of Indianapolis, who had charge of the freight train, received orders at Urbana to wait at Mackinaw for the work train, which was due there at 2:40 p. m. Instead of doing this he failed to stop. The engineer of the work train, George Becker had also received orders to pass the freight at Mackinaw, and was on the way to that station. The work train was perhaps five minutes late and was running at full speed in order to make up time.

The collision was witnessed by Russell Noon, a farmer's boy of 14 years of age, who hastened to a nearby house and telephoned to Tremont.

One of the last bodies recovered was that of William Bailey of Mackinaw, who had been thrown thirty feet into the air and held in place by two steel rails which had been pushed up between the engines and tender of the work train.

The workmen had been engaged in laying rails at different points along the track.

The dead men are residents of neighboring towns, and the scene about the wreck was beyond description. Wives and children of men who were missing thronged around, peering at the unrecognizable forms removed from the debris. Out of 85 men who constituted the crew of the work train only four men are living, and two of these are seriously injured. The following is a list of the dead identified:

ROBERT KING, forty three years old, Tremont; leaves widow and three children.

THOMAS TROY, Tremont; single.

WM. EADS, Tremont; leaves widow and three children.

CHARLES E. EMERS, Bloomington; widow and five children.

GEORGE SMITH, Bloomington, widow and three children.

GEORGE HARMON, Bloomington; widow and four children.

JOHN DORAN, Bloomington; single.

JOHN SMITH, Bloomington; single.

FRED BACHMAN, Danvers; single.

JOHN SHAW, Mackinaw; single.

STEPHEN CULLER, Mackinaw; single.

Nine bodies mangled beyond recognition.

The injured: John Ghele, fireman, Indianapolis; leg broken.

A. S. Mastings, conductor; badly bruised.

Jacob Reise, brakeman, Roanoke; right arm broken.

W. T. Harlan, brakeman, Indianapolis; leg broken.

Charles Gennin, roadmaster, leg broken.

Charles Ford, Farmer City; ankle broken.

Herbert White, Roanoke; leg broken.

Harry White, Woodford Station; arm broken and bruised.

Chris Barr, Danvers; leg broken.

Gustav Thiebands, Danvers; right arm broken.

John Duvanel, Danvers.

BANK STATEMENTS.

Washington, Nov. 20.—The Comptroller of the currency has issued a call for the condition of the National Banks at the close of business Nov. 17.

AN INNOVATION

Y. M. C. A. Will Introduce Billiards and Pool.

Provided Enough Money Can Be Raised—An Electricity Class.

The board of directors of the local Y. M. C. A. have decided to put in combination billiard and pool tables at the association building, Sixth and Broadway, provided a sufficient amount to cover the expense of putting them in can be raised outside of the regular income of the association. This will be the first association in Kentucky to introduce this innovation. Many of the associations of the northern states, however, have with success added this feature to their rooms.

The points that would make the games objectionable in an institution of this kind, are eliminated, and a special set of rules is adopted to govern them, when under association management.

The cost of putting in the tables will be about $300, and a special subscription will be asked for this purpose. Voluntary subscriptions will be received at the association building. It is the purpose to place the billiard and pool tables in the game room of the building, and it is thought they will add considerable interest in bringing visitors to the rooms.

An electricity class of seven members has been formed at the Y. M. C. A. A room has been fitted up for the purpose and instruction is given in practical electricity. The class meets Wednesday and Saturday nights.

THE WEATHER.

Fair tonight and warmer tomorrow.

$500,000 FIRE LOSS

Louisville Visited by a Destructive Blaze.

Old Masonic Temple Destroyed—Hopkins Theater Was Entirely Gutted.

THE TOTAL LOSSES THERE

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 20—The worst fire in Louisville in years broke out at 8 o'clock this morning and completely destroyed the big Old Masonic Temple block at Fourth and Jefferson streets, one of the most desirable pieces of property in the city. The fire is supposed to have originated in the scenery of the Hopkins theater, on the second floor. The theater was completely gutted.

The fire is still raging but was under control at 9 a. m. No one was hurt, but all the actors lost everything. The loss will be upward of half a million.

The principal losses are: Old Masonic Temple, cost $275,000, owned by Lawrence and Saunders.

Jones improvements, $25,000, insurance $65,000. Loss on building, $100,000.

J. W. Fowler & Co., druggist, loss $50,000 complete.

NO DEMOCRATIC AID

Is Needed by the Republicans in Tariff Revision.

Mr. Grosvenor Points Out the Independence of the Republican Party.

GIVES CLEVELAND A SHOT

Washington, Nov. 20.—Mr. Grosvenor, of Ohio in regard to the Cuban bill said he regretted that there had been no discussion on the other side of the House on the Panama canal question, and in this connection he said the position of the administration was unassailable and would redound to the glory of the American people.

Mr. Grosvenor said he would not permit his vote on this question to be challenged as affecting his attitude on the dominant question of protection to American industries. Speaking of tariff reforms, he said the Republicans would revise the schedules when they got ready to do so, and in their own way, without any aid from the opposite side of the house, and that the revision would be with special reference to upbuilding of American industries without disturbing present conditions. He observed that nothing would be more destructive than to have the Democrats come into power, but that was an impossibility for the next two years.

Replying to the remarks of Mr. Swanson (Va.) he said there need be no fear of retaliation from a country which could not live ninety days without purchasing food supplies from the outside. Answering a statement made by Mr. Clark (Mo.) as to conditions existing when Mr. Cleveland went in as President, Mr. Grosvenor said:

"Immediately upon the election of Cleveland there was practically a suppression of the income of the revenue of the government into the Treasury of the United States. It was natural; it was inevitable. It would happen again if somebody other than Roosevelt should be elected President next year."

NO EFFECT HERE

Will Withdrawal of Massachusetts A. O. U. W. Have.

The Eastern Members May Yet Reconsider Their Action.

The threatened withdrawal of the Massachusetts branch of the Ancient Order of United Workmen has not alarmed the grand officers of the Kentucky jurisdiction in the least, says the Courier Journal. Other states have previously withdrawn their support from the national organization, but have always been glad to re-affiliate with the body.

The trouble has arisen over the increase of the guarantee assessments levied by the supreme body on the several jurisdictions. This fund is maintained to assist the organization in the States which suffer heavily through deaths each year. After eight assessments have been levied against each member of the State organization the deficit, if there remains any, is paid out of the guarantee fund by the supreme body. The Massachusetts organization has rebelled against the raise and as the state has never called on the national body for help the members believe they can get along without the support of the national organization and save their assessments for the guarantee fund.

"Massachusetts cannot withdraw before the next meeting of the Supreme Council in June," said J. G. Walker, Grand Recorder of Kentucky, yesterday. "They have 80,000 members and their withdrawal would have no great effect, as there are 430,000 members in other jurisdictions. I regard their attitude as unwise, for even though they have never required help, it cannot be told when they will. I doubt whether they will persist in their decision, but even if they do it will not affect us in the least."

Mrs. W. F. Lamb and family have arrived from Jackson, Tenn., to join Manager Lamb, of the Jesse French Piano company, who has been stationed here.

This course was adopted by the board and Mr. DuBois name will not be used.

The matter of placing in new curbing at First and Broadway, in front of the Fowler boat store, was referred.

Mayor Yeiser was instructed to appoint two additional men for the fire department.

The certificates of election of the many successful candidates were read and spread on the minutes and the bond of Mayor Yeiser accepted. He gave Messrs. J. W. Bloomfield, R. L. Reeves and M. Bloom as surety.

A report was filed saying that property owners had come to an agreement about opening a street beyond Husbands between Seventh and Eighth street and would dedicate the necessary property.

Chief Woods, of the fire department, was ordered to inspect all places in the city where trash and other combustible matter is stored and have it cleared away for safety.

The ordinance committees were ordered to bring in the ordinance providing for extra horse watering troughs and automatic railroad gates.

An erroneous assessment of Mr. J. C. Farley was referred.

The matter of extending Broad street across Cross creek was brought up but nothing done as no property has been dedicated.

Mayor Yeiser was ordered to notify the street car company that unless the car tracks on Kentucky avenue between Third and Fourth are taken up or the line operated, legal proceedings will be instituted against the company to compel it to do so.

A shed for the new horse street roller was ordered built.

Engineer Washington was ordered to sell the old horse street roller for whatever it might bring.

On motion the board adjourned.

COMPROMISE NOT PROBABLE.

Berlin, Nov. 19.—The Oehmutter Allgemeine Zeitung prints an interview with Baron Von Sternberg, the German ambassador to America in which the ambassador is quoted as stating that a commercial treaty between Germany and America is hardly probable as America is aware of her own strength and is unwilling to sacrifice her advantage by compromise.

DAILY THOUGHT.
Ride on rough shod if need be,
smooth shod if that will do, but ride
on. Ride over all obstacles and win the race. Dickens.

Pshaw! The present cold wave is nothing to the blizzard we had in Kentucky Nov. 3rd.

There does not seem to be much enthusiasm among the Republicans of this Senatorial district over the election of State Senator in December.
Possibly no Republican thinks the office is worth going out after!

Attorney Folk may have broken up boodling in Missouri, but he hasn't broken up the Democratic ring that is responsible for it, as he will probably discover before his campaign for the Democratic gubernatorial is over.

Congressman Ollie James has been painfully silent since his debut into statesmanship with the remarkable bill to get former Governor Taylor back to Kentucky at the expense of state rights. Can it be that the celebrity he attained was not quite the kind he expected?

The misrepresentation and opposition of Democrats in the Panama affair will make the Republicans all the more solid in support of President Roosevelt and the administration in all they have done or may do in the case. Fortunately the Democrats are not, and will in all probability never be, responsible for anything the United States does. The Republicans will continue to look after the country's welfare in their own way.

Glenn's Graphic wants the old time way of punishing criminals. It says:
"The Graphic is not much on politics,
but when it comes to the whipping post it is there with both feet. If the coming legislature will pass a whipping post bill for wife beaters and for those guilty of ordinary thieving and certain other misdemeanors, we are willing then that the members of that body shall disfranchise the negroes and about half the white fellows who vote the Democratic ticket."

Says Glenn's Graphic, (Democratic)
of Madisonville: "We have but very little idea that Caleb Powers will ever be hanged for the part he played, or is supposed to have played, in the murder of Goebel. The people of the state of Kentucky are coming to their reason and there is a very grave and serious doubt in the minds of a great majority of the people as to whether or not he was guilty of anything more than assisting in bringing the monstainers to the city of Frankfort.

This was a mistake and this mistake
may have resulted in the death of Mr.
Goebel. The Democrats can now afford to be generous. They have carried everything and there is no future need that they should enter into the persecution of a man of whom there is great doubt as to his guilt.
We believe that if the court of appeals does not reverse the decision of the lower court, that Governor Beckham will commute the sentence to one of life imprisonment. We do not believe Mr. Beckham is a bloodthirsty man."

Senator Smoot seems to be in a fair way to hold on to his seat in Congress.
It is admitted now that he has never contracted a plural marriage, and the only charge made against him is that his connection with the Mormon church conflicts with his taking the oath as a United States senator. It seems that it is time for the people to cease regarding every person from Utah, even if a disciple of the Mormon church, as a wild beast. People seem to have a very faint idea of what the Mormons really are. The Mormons claim their religion does not teach, require or permit polygamy, and they ought to know; but even if it did they cannot practice polygamy in the United States under our laws. One great trouble with this country of free speech and free thought is that there are always narrow-minded people to jump at conclusions and raise a fuss over something they know little or nothing about. In the absence of any proof that Smoot is not a clean, moral man, there seems to be no more justification for opposing his holding a seat in Congress because he belongs to the Mormon church than there would be if he belonged to the Baptist, Methodist, or some other church.

WILL TEAR UP PART
BUT THE TRACKS BETWEEN
THIRD AND FOURTH
WILL REMAIN.

Last night the board of aldermen passed a resolution to have the street car company take up its tracks running on Kentucky avenue between Second and Fourth streets, and if the company refused to take legal steps to compel them to do so.

Mr. George C. Wallace, of the street car company, was seen this morning and stated that tomorrow the company will begin tearing up the tracks from Second to Third streets but that the tracks between Fourth and Third will be left down. Mr. Wallace stated that he did not wish to appear contrary, as the street car company desires to do all it possibly can to work with the city, but if the tracks were above ground it was not the fault of the street car company.

"The tracks on Kentucky avenue," he stated, "have been there for eight years and have never been touched.
They were put in strictly correct, in regard to the grade, and have not been raised or lowered since."

The tracks complained of mostly are those to be taken up tomorrow and it is not probable that any further steps against the company to attempt to compel it to tear up the remaining square, will be taken by either municipal board.

Ohio, and was grand master of the Odd Fellows of Illinois in 1872. He celebration in Clarksville next week on the occasion of the completion of the Tennessee Central railroad to that city. The date at present mentioned, the road will be officially declared

completed to Clarksville by that time, although finished in reality a trifle
earlier.

TO CHANGE THE GRADE

Quite a Job Undertaken by the City to Drain Broadway

Second Street Will Soon Be Open
Again for Traffic—Curbing Is Rejected.

MATTERS GENERAL INTEREST

The job of changing the grade of part of the brick street on Broadway ordered done by the boards this week,
may mean more than it is now thought. On account of some defect in the grade the water never run off rapidly enough during a heavy rain to prevent floods. Some claim that the drainage cannot possibly be made to carry off all the water during a heavy rain and prevent the formation of pools near the street corners, but the city is going to try it. The grade near the corners will have to be lowered, which will require the taking up of many bricks. Work will probably begin shortly.

It is not believed that the material
at the iron furnace, such as iron ore, limestone, slag, etc., will be bought by the city for use on the streets. According to the statements today of some of the officials in authority, the stuff is not fit to be put on the streets, even if the city has been in the habit of putting on most anything. The aldermen last night referred the matter to the city engineer and street committee, and Engineer Washington will inspect the ore and stone today some time. The slag placed on the streets some time ago caused universal complaint, as it seemed to be of no value on the streets, and out up horses' hoofs
and rubber tires to an alarming extent.

The alarm that some of the city officials seem to feel on the eve of retiring from office over the street car tracks on Court street from Third to Fourth, will probably vanish after their terms expire and they are relieved of the dreadful responsibility that now rests on them because of the existence of the tracks. The street car company, they might find out by investigating, has a franchise covering the block referred to, and runs cars enough over it to comply with the law and hold the franchise. If the officials would take the trouble to find this out, they might spare themselves much anxiety.

The matter of grading and graveling West Jefferson street beyond Fountain avenue to 25th street, has been again taken up by the boards. For a year or two they have been trying to come to some conclusion about this much needed improvement, but they do not seem to be able to get together.
This portion of Paducah is now about the most fashionable in the city, or at any rate is destined to soon become so, and it ought to be opened up. Something may be done after the new boards get into office, but hardly before.

Second street will be thrown open to the public as soon as the brick are all laid and the street rolled, which will be done today with the horse roller.
There has been some doubt as to whether the block should first be received by the city, but Engineer Washington states that this is not necessary, and that as soon as the block is complete it will be opened for traffic.
The four blocks on Broadway paved several years ago have never been received by the city, although they have been paid for.

Much of the stone received for the Third street curbing was rejected by the city engineer because it was not up to specifications. It will have to be taken back by the Atlanta quarry that sent it, as while it is of the proper quality, it is in some instances cut wrong, and is otherwise different from what is required. It is hard to tell when enough curbing will arrive to enable the work on North Third street to proceed.

It has developed that Rev. W. W.
Armstrong, who was assigned to Trimble street Methodist church at the recent meeting of the Memphis annual conference at Fulton, Ky., will likely not be able to take charge of this appointment, on account of his wife's health. He will doubtless be given a place, therefore, near his present home at Dyer, Tenn., and the minister filling the church to which he will be assigned will be sent here.

The fact that Mrs. Armstrong was too ill to move was not known at the time the conference appointments were made, since her husband was called home to her, and was not present at the close of the conference session. The assignment of another pastor to Trimble street will likely be made at once.

THE EXPOSITION.

EVERYTHING WILL BE IN READINESS FOR MONDAY'S OPENING.

A visit to the exposition building today showed a reporter that all work will likely be completed by Saturday night, thereby giving ample time to have everything in perfect readiness for the opening next Monday noon. Carpenters and painters are busy as bees transforming the bare floor into a modern fairland. Artist Robert McCune is at work on an artistic front of the building which promises to be handsome and attractive.

The most attractive thing that could be thought of has been arranged for the exposition's initial offering to the public, i. e., dinner, served by the ladies of the Home of the Friendless, with a musical accompaniment by Deal's Kentucky orchestra. These ladies will serve meals and lunches during the entire time of the exposition and will have a special housekeepers' cake sale on Wednesday.

Merchants today are moving exhibits into the building, and some of the displays will be highly artistic and well worth seeing; workmen are busy digging the "bottomless well," and the features from other cities will arrive in Paducah Sunday morning.

All in all the indications are for a fine exposition and profitable for all who attend.

HOME TESTING

A SURE AND EASY TEST ON COFFEE.

To decide the all important question of coffee, whether or not it is really the hidden cause of your physical ail and approaching fixed disease, one should make a test of ten days by leaving off coffee entirely and using well made Postum coffee.

If relief follows you may know to a certainty that coffee has been your vicious and killing enemy. Of course you can take it back to your heart again if you like to keep sick.

A lady says: "I had suffered with stomach trouble, nervousness and terrible sick headaches ever since I was a little child for my people were always great coffee drinkers and let us children have all we wanted. I got so I thought I could not live without coffee and I would not acknowledge that it was causing my suffering."

"Then I read so many articles about Postum that I decided to give it a fair trial. I had not used it two weeks in place of coffee until I began to feel like a different person. The headaches and nervousness disappeared and where I used to be sick two or three days out of a week while drinking coffee I am now well and strong and sturdy seven days a week, thanks to Postum."

"I had been using Postum three months and had never been sick a day when I thought I would experiment and see if it really was coffee that caused the trouble, so I began to drink coffee again and inside of a week I had an awful sick spell. I was so ill I was soon convinced that coffee was the cause of all my misery and I went back to Postum again in a hurry with the result that I was soon again well and strong and determined to use Postum the rest of my days and to leave coffee alone in the future."

Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich. Look in each package for a copy of the famous little book, "The Road to Wellville."

One of the most attractive features of "In the Palace of the King" is the gown worn by Miss Helen Grantley, who plays Dolores. The garments were specially designed for her by Worth, of Paris, and it is said that in making them the great dressmaker has surpassed all his previous efforts in stage attire.

It is rather difficult to recall among the younger actors on the stage of today one with whom it is possible to compare Harry Beresford who is to appear in this city on Thanksgiving day. He will present to us J. M. Barrie's delightful comedy, "The Professor's Love Story." Critics in cities in which Mr. Beresford has been seen ere this aver that he stands the co-equal in artistic work of Nat Goodwin and William H. Crane.

"The Three Musketeers" was played by the Van Dyke-Eaton Co. last night at the Kentucky theater to a large and well pleased audience. It is one of the best bills presented and was handled in a creditable manner. The company has made many friends during its stay and will continue to have large crowds as long as it remains. The specialties are changed every night and are alone worth the price of admission. Tonight the company will play "Right for Wrong."

Tomorrow afternoon there will be a 10 cent matinee, "Over the Hills to the Poorhouse," being the bill. The prospects are for the largest matinee of the season.

LICENSE COMMITTEE

MEETING HELD AT THE CITY HALL TODAY—MANY INCREASES.

A meeting of the license committee of the general council is being held at the city hall this afternoon, one session having been held this morning. The object is to fix the amount of license to be charged during the coming year for various businesses, professions, etc. It was stated by a member of the committee today that nothing definite could be given out, but that the changes in the licenses would be largely increased, and a number of things on which no license has been imposed heretofore will be assessed this year. The reductions will be few and far between.

Tonight the two boards will meet as a committee of the whole and take up the matter of license, and probably pass on the recommendations of the license committee being formulated today.

WIFE REPENTED

HAD HER HUSBAND ARRESTED AND THEN GOT SORRY.

Wednesday morning John Holder, colored teamster, whipped his wife at his home on Court street near the Rehkopf collar shop, and she immediately had him warranted.

This morning the police served the warrant and brought Holder up for trial, but too late for the morning session of court. His wife repenting of her action in warranting her better half, came over and in pleading tones assured the court that she and her husband were "only playing" but that she thought at the time he was mad. John stated that he was not mad and that was sufficient, according to the woman. Judge Sanders thought that such rough sport should be investigated and set the case down for hearing tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock.

ARRESTS TODAY

Willis Strickland, colored, well known in police circles, was arrested today at noon by Officers Hurley and Owens on a charge of stealing an overcoat and other garments from Mr. Charles Ellerbrook, who left them hanging in the Sherrill saloon. He will be given a hearing tomorrow morning before Judge Sanders.

A man giving the name of John Jones was arrested this morning by Officers Sener and Dugan for indecent exposure.

The great American trouble is indigestion, largely a result of the great American habit of hurry.

Hastily swallowed meals are probably the greatest cause of indigestion. The stomach is given more than its share of work and is overtaxed. The first thing to do in correcting the trouble is to stop fast eating. The next thing is to take a good digestive tonic to strengthen the digestion and enrich the impoverished blood.

Such a tonic is Walther's Peptonized Port, a simple combination of pure pepsin and good port wine, to be had at W. B. McPherson, druggist, Paducah, Ky.

Almost Unnerved Me
—Heart Pains.

Short of Breath,
Faint and Languid.

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure and Nervine Cured Me.

"It has been five years since I was cured of heart trouble by your Heart Cure and Nervine, and I am just as sound as a dollar in that organ today. For several years I had been suffering with my heart. Breathing had become short and difficult at times, sharp pains about the heart, sometimes accompanied with fluttering would make me feel faint and languid. The least excitement or mental worry would almost unnerve me. I felt that the trouble was growing worse all the time, and after trying many remedies prescribed by physicians without obtaining relief, I was induced to give your remedies a trial. I was relieved the second day, and after taking three or four bottles all symptoms were removed and have never showed signs of returning."—REV. GEO. W. KIRKCOFF, Chattanooga, Va.

There are many symptoms of heart disease, which so closely resemble those of more common nervous disorders as to frequently mislead the attending physician. Often in cases of heart trouble the stomach, kidneys, liver or lungs become affected. Again the symptoms may be those of weakened nerves, as tired feeling, sleeplessness, timidity, the patient is easily excitable and apt to worry without cause. If you have the least suspicion that your heart is weak study your symptoms and begin the use of Dr. Miles' Heart Cure, the great heart and blood tonic, without a day's delay.

CLIMATIC CURES.

The influence of climatic conditions in the cure of consumption is very much overdrawn. The poor patient, and the rich patient, too can do much better at home by proper attention to food digestion, and a regular use of German Syrup. Free expectoration in the morning is made certain by German Syrup, so is a good night's rest and the absence of that weakening cough and debilitating night sweat. Restless nights and the exhaustion due to coughing, the greatest danger and dread of the consumptive, can be prevented or stopped by taking German Syrup liberally and regularly. Should you be able to go to a warmer climate, you will find that of the thousands of consumptives there, the few who are benefited and regain strength are those who use German Syrup. Trial bottles, 25c; regular size, 75c. For sale by DuBois, Kolb & Co.

HAD EIGHT COACHES

Big Inspection Train Was Here
Last Night.

Was in Charge of Mr. W. J. Harahan and Chief Engineer H.
U. Wallace.

OTHER OFFICIALS ARE HERE

The annual main line inspection train of the Illinois Central railroad passed through the city last night with Assistant General Manager W. J. Harahan and Chief Engineer H. U. Wallace, of Chicago, in authority. There were many other officials on the train but they were all from the northern divisions.

The train arrived in Paducah from Memphis at 9:45 last night and remained over an hour here, leaving at 11:08 for Louisville. It will return today arriving this afternoon about 5 o'clock and will go back to Chicago probably via the Cairo division.

The train was composed of eight private cars and one baggage coach and was met here by Superintendent A. H. Egan, of the Louisville division, and the following minor officials of that division: A. Murphy, supervisor, W. C. Waggoner, supervisor; J. McNamara, supervisor; B. H. Hilliard, supervisor; and W. T. Dineen, special agent for the Louisville division of the road. The party accompanied the inspectors over the division last night and will return with them this afternoon. The train was in charge of Conductor Mullinix.

NEW ROUTE

IS TO BE USED BY THE I. C.
IN ENTERING BIRMINGHAM.

Birmingham, Ala., Nov. 20.—The Illinois Central railroad will come into Birmingham from a new point, although the Frisco tracks will be used, as originally announced. The Frisco tracks will be used from New Albany, Miss., instead of Holly Springs, a saving in trackage arrangement of some sixty miles.

Two parties of engineers went into the field Monday, under the supervision of Captain Farrel, the chief engineer, to survey parts of the new route. One party starts at Mobile and will survey toward Memphis.

At Bolivar, the junction of the Illinois Central, and the Mobile, Jackson and Kansas City railroad, the Southern also forms a crossing. At New Albany the Frisco and M. J. and K. C. cross, and there the Illinois Central will begin to use the Frisco tracks into Birmingham. No time has been set for the commencement of operations into Birmingham, but every indication points to early in the new year. The construction to be done on either road is comparatively light, and this will be prosecuted as rapidly as possible.

In marked contrast to the great number of patent medicines, cereals and secret preparations is Walther's Peptonized Port.

This preparation claims no magic virtues, has no mysterious composition, and does not presume upon the intelligence of the people by pretending to be a sovereign cure for all the ills which the flesh is heir to.

Walther's Peptonized Port comes as a common sense tonic, composed of two well known remedies—port wine and pepin, about the efficacy of which there is no question. W. B. McPherson, Druggist, Paducah, Ky., sell Walther's Peptonized Port.

Small size 50 cents. Large size, $1.

LIVED A CENTURY

DID THIS FORMER QUEEN OF
THE CIRCUS.

New York, Nov. 20.—In her 101st year, Mrs. Marie Pigram Harrison, who was in her childhood days petted by George III, king of England, and was one of the old queens of the circus, died at 46 Lawrence street, Brooklyn, on Saturday, says the Herald.

Mrs. Harrison was the daughter of a bootmaker to George III, and had been the pet in her young days of Dukes and duchesses. She was born in Hampton Court, Surrey, England. Her husband, John W. B. Harrison, attained fame as the original impromptu singer. Both Mrs. Harrison and her husband were long associated with P. T. Barnum. Together they were the first to introduce Tom Thumb Minnie and Lavinia Warren and several other midgets.

Fifty years ago there was perhaps no better known woman in the circus business than Mrs. Harrison. As the foster parent of dwarfs of the stage she carried Tom Thumb and his fellows in her arms, regarding them rather as children than adults. Thousands upon thousands of persons knew her and applauded her. She knew every celebrated circus performer and actor from Maine to California.

All over the country this woman traveled. Before the days of railroads she journeyed to the west on horseback.

Latterly her hobby had been the collecting of souvenirs of circus folk. At her death she possessed rare mementos of the many dwarfs of the circus who had been her special proteges.

SAYS DRUMMER WHO KILLED
A YOUNG MILLIONAIRE.

St. Joseph, Mo., Nov. 20.—Joseph F. Furlong, the young traveling man from St. Louis, who, in self defense shot and killed Irving McDonald, the young millionaire, Sunday morning at the Metropole hotel under guard of Police Sergeant Kelly, because of a late announcement of Prosecuting attorney Gahbart that he would give the family of the dead man an opportunity to say whether they could further prosecute the case, John I. McDonald, the father, said the family had no choice in the matter, and that Furlong was released. The latter refused to discuss the killing, and absolutely declined to join his friends in a social drink, saying he was through for all time to come with liquor in any form.

This is the month of coughs, colds, and acute catarrh. Do you catch cold easily? Find yourself hoarse, with a tickling in your throat and an annoying cough at night? Then, you should always have handy a bottle of Ballard's Horchond Syrup. J. A. Anderson, 35 West Fifth street, Salt Lake City, writes: "We use Ballard's Horchond Syrup for coughs and colds. It gives immediate relief. We know it's the best remedy for these troubles. I write this to induce other people to try this pleasant and efficient remedy." 25c, 50c and $1 at DuBois, Kolb & Co.

TWO KILLED

IN A CHURCH PANIC IN NEW MEXICO.

Santa Fe, N. M., Nov. 20.—At La Puente, a small village on the Brazos river, two miles from Tierra Amarillo, while the people were in the church celebrating the feast of the patron saint of the village, the church being very much crowded, the flames from a lighted candle ignited the drapery of the altar. This caused a panic among the 500 men, women and children present and all rushed for the single exit. In the crush several people were severely injured and two children were trampled upon and killed. A number of women fainted and were dragged out by the men. The fire did very little damage.

BIG COAL SHIPMENT

Many Million Bushels are Coming South.

Only a Slight Mishap So Far—Cold Wave Checks the Rise.

COAL FOR NEW ORLEANS

Pittsburg, Pa., Nov. 20.—More than 4,000,000 bushels of coal went south on the best stage of water for shipment that the rivermen have had for six months. The cold wave has checked the rise.

Only one accident has thus far been reported. A fleet of six coal barges and one sand barge and a large float loaded with lumber owned by the James Jiles company, broke away from 28th street in the Allegheny river. The stream had the velocity of a whirlpool. The barges were whirled around in the current, but miraculously brushed past bridge piers and stationary craft, finally being swept out into the Ohio, nearly a mile away, where they were caught by the towboats Tide and F. K. Huling. The coal goes to Cincinnati, Louisville, Cairo, New Orleans and other ports.

The fleet is made up as follows: Horner No. 2, twelve barges, five flats; Oakland, 12 coal boats, one barge; C. W. Thomas, 17 coal boats; Boaz, 10 coal boats, one barge, four flats, three model barges; Ironsides, 12 barges, three flats; Iron Age, 10 coal boats, two barges, three flats; Enterprise, seven barges, one flat; Sam Brown, eight coal boats, five barges, three flats; Charley Clark, 11 coal boats, one flat; Jim Wood, eight coal boats, five barges; Volunteer, five boats, 10 barges; J. C. Risher, eight coal boats, two flats; Joe Walton, 12 barges, two flats; Josh Cook, seven coal boats, 10 barges; Coal City, 15 coal boats, two barges, three flats. A total of 4,105,000 bushels passed Davis Island dam.

BEST LINIMENT ON EARTH.

I. M. Mollany, Greenville, Tex., writes, Nov. 2, 1900: "I had rheumatism last winter was down in bed six weeks; tried everything, but got no relief, till a friend gave me a part of a bottle of Ballard's Snow Liniment. I used it, and got two more bottles. It cured me and I haven't felt any rheumatism since. I can recommend Snow Liniment to be the best liniment on earth for rheumatism." For rheumatic, sciatic or neuralgic pains, rub in Ballard's Snow Liniment, you will not suffer long, but will be gratified with a speedy and effective cure. 25c, 50c and $1 at DuBois, Kolb & Co.

NO EXHIBITION

WILL BE PLAYED IN THE SPRING BY PITTSBURG CLUB.

President Barney Dreyfus, of the Pirates, has turned down all offers for exhibition games in the spring for his team. He says that he will take his team to Hot Springs to be healed out, and will stay at the resort till four days before the opening of the season and then in a private car the team will be carried across the country and dumped right out on to the carpet ready for the fray. He says that the managers who for the sake of landing a few paltry dollars long their teams about the country and throw them open to all kinds of injuries and chaotic horses are welcome to all the joy and lore they can get out of it.

THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.

THE SKY PILOT

By RALPH CONNOR

Author of "The Man From Glenary" "Glenary School Days" and "Black Rock" Copyright, 1909, by FLEMING H. REVELL COMPANY

This was apparently a new idea in demonology for Bruce, for he sank back, while Moore lighted the fire and put on the teakettle. He looked round for the tea caddy.

"I'm there," said Bruce, forgetting for the moment his devil and pointing to a quaint, old fashioned tea caddy upon the shelf.

Moore took it down, turned it in his hands and looked at Bruce.

"Old country, eh?"

"My mother's," said Bruce soberly.

"I could have sworn it was my aunt's in Italy," said Moore.

"My aunt lived in a little stone cottage with roses all over the front of it."

And on he went into an enthusiastic description of his early home. His voice was full of music, soft and soothing, and poor Bruce sank back and listened, the glitter fading from his eyes.

The Duke and I looked at each other.

"Not too bad, eh?" said the Duke after a few moments' silence.

"Let's put up the horses," I suggested.

"They won't want us for half an hour."

When we came in, the room had been set in order, the teakettle was singing, the bedclothes were straightened out, and Moore had just finished washing the blood stains from Bruce's arms and neck.

"Just in time," he said. "I didn't like to tackle these," pointing to the bandages.

All night long Moore soothed and tended the sick man, now singing softly to him and again beguiling him with tales that meant nothing, but that had a strange power to quiet the nervous restlessness due partly to the pain of the wounded arm and partly to the nerve wrecking from his months of disapproval. The Duke seemed uncomfortable enough. He spoke to Bruce once or twice, but the only answer was a groan or curse, with an increase of restlessness.

"He'll have a close squeak," said the Duke. The carelessness of the tone was a little overdone, but the Duke was stirred up by it.

"He has not been fortunate in his friends," he said, looking straight into his eyes.

"A man ought to know himself when the pace is too swift," said the Duke, a little more quickly than was his wont.

"You might have done anything with him. Why didn't you help him?" Moore's tones were stern and very steady, and he never moved his eyes from the other man's face, but the only reply he got was a shrug of the shoulders.

When the gray of the morning was coming in at the window the Duke rose up, gave himself a little shake and said:

"I am not of any service here. I shall come back in the evening."

He went and stood for a few moments looking down upon the hot, fevered face; then, turning to me, he asked:

"What do you think?"

"Can't say! The bronchitis is holding him down just now. His blood is bad for that wound."

"Can I get anything?" I knew him well enough to recognize the anxiety under his indifferent manner.

"The Fort doctor ought to be got." He nodded and went out.

"Have breakfast," called out Moore from the door.

"I shall get some at the Fort, thanks. They won't take any hurt from me there," he said, smiling his cynical smile.

Moore opened his eyes in surprise.

"What's that for?" he asked me.

"Well, he is rather out of it, and you rather rubbed it into him, you know."

I said, for I thought Moore a little hard.

"Did I say anything untrue?"

"Well, not untrue, perhaps; but truth is like medicine—not always good to take."

At which Moore was silent till his patient needed him again.

It was a weary day. The intense pain from the wound and the high fever from the poison in his blood kept the poor fellow in delirium all evening, when the Duke rode up with the Fort doctor. Jingo appeared as nearly played out as a horse of his spirit ever allowed himself to become.

"Seventy miles," said the Duke, swinging himself off the saddle. "The doctor was ten miles out. How is he?"

I shook my head, and he led away his horse to give him a rub and a feed.

Meantime the doctor, who was of the army and had seen service, was examining his patient. He grew more and more puzzled as he noted the various symptoms. Finally he broke out:

"What have you been doing to him? Why is he in this condition? This flea bite doesn't account for all," pointing to the wound.

We stood like children reproved. Then the Duke said hesitatingly:

"I fear, doctor, the life has been a little too hard for him. He had a severe nervous attack—seeing things, you know."

"Yes, I know," stormed the old doctor. "I know you well enough, with your head of cast iron and no nerves to speak of. I know the crowd and how you lead them. Infernal fools! You'll get your turn some day. I've warned you before."

IT IS ENORMOUS

The Sale of Our Products is Over Two Million a Day.

The Growth of Our Business Has Been Very Rapid of Late.

Five million dollars a day is a snug sum for the people of a single county to realize as the sale of the products of their farms, factories, forests, fisheries, and mines. The exports of domestic products of the United States in the month of October, 1903, averaged more than 5 million dollars for every day in the month, and for every business day in the month averaged practically six million dollars a day. The total exports of the month, as shown by the figures of the department of commerce and labor through its bureau of statistics, amounted to $160,370,059, which would average more than five million dollars for every day in the month and practically six million dollars for each business day in the month.

This exportation in October, amounting to 160 million dollars, exceeds that of any preceding month in the history of our commerce with the single exception of October 1900, when the total was $163,389,680. Imports in October also exceeded those of any preceding October, with the single exception of October, 1903. They amounted to $81,931,005, or a little over two and half million dollars per day.

Of this enormous total of 160 millions of exports, or six million dollars a day for each business day, the largest single items was cotton, amounting to 60 million dollars, while the remaining 100 million dollars was divided among other farm products, manufacturers, the products of the mines, forests and fisheries.

A comparison of October exports with those of October of earlier years illustrates the remarkable growth of our export trade. In 1870 the October exports were 29 millions; in 1880, 85 millions; in 1890, 98 millions, and in 1900, 163 millions, the largest exports for any single month in the history of our commerce, and in 1903, 160 millions, or more than in any preceding month except that of October, 1900.

The St. Louis and Tennessee river packet company will send out the steamer City of Savannah today in charge of Captain H. N. The Holcomb-Lobb Co., of Paducah, has control of 300,000 acres of fine timber land in Cumberland county, Tenn., and has started working it preparatory to bring out many thousands of ties this season. The company has been working for this tract of land for some time and it is said to be the finest in the state of Tennessee and in fact the best in the entire tie region. Many tiemakers have been taken to the land and set to work, many erecting houses and taking up a permanent residence. The work of converting the timber into ties will require much time and it will be two years before the timber is consumed, even with a much larger force of tiemakers than have been taken there.

TO COMPLETE WORK—A large force of Cumberland Telephone linemen went to Tennessee river bridge this morning on the I. O. to complete the work of setting poles on the bridge. The poles were all destroyed when a section of the bridge burned last July and now that the bridge is nearing completion the linemen went up to finish their work.
